

Abstract of th Disclosure

5 A side truss assembly for escalators and moving walkways is formed of a corrugated main panel bounded by upper and lower stiffeners. The corrugation fold lines preferably extend perpendicular to the rise angle of the assembly and to the length of the stiffeners. End panels may be joined to the main panel to form a parallelogram construction with vertical end walls.